Richmond Dispatch.

THE CIRCULATION OF THE DISPATCH IS LARGER THAN THE COMBINED CIRCULATION OF ALL THE OTHER DAILY NEWSPAPERS OF THE CITY.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 29, 1874.

LOCAL MATTERS.

THE WEATHER TO-DAY.—From our reports this morning the probabilities are that the weather to-day will be partly cloudy.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES TO-MORROW.—The usual religious services will be held in all the churches to-morrow, except the following special appointments:

Trinity Methodist.—Rev. A. C. Bledsoe having returned to the city will preach at his church (Trinity) morning and night.

Sidney Methodist.—Rev. F. W. Woodward at 11 A. M. and the pastor at night.

City-Street Methodist.—Rev. F. C. Woodward at 11 A. M.; Rev. D. P. Wills at 8 o'clock P. M.

Broad-Street Methodist.—Rev. D. P. Wills at 11 A. M., quarterly meeting; Rev. J. C. Gray at 8 P. M.

Nicholson-Street Methodist.—The pastor, Rev. R. H. Mullen, having improved in health, will preach at 11 A. M. Revival services at 8 o'clock P. M.

Second Presbyterian Church.—Rev. William Brown, D. D., at 11 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Second Baptist.—Rev. J. F. Deans, of Norfolk, at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M.

Old Fellows' Hall.—Preaching on Sunday at the colored Old Fellows' Hall, on Franklin street, at 9 P. M., by Dr. Gray, of the Broad-Street Methodist, Rev. W. B. Derrick at 8 P. M.

St. John's Episcopal.—The rector, Rev. Henry Wall, has returned to the city. Services at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M.

Revival.—Rev. H. G. Crews, of this city, is in the city for a revival of religion at the Church of the Holy Trinity, near Halifax Court-house. About eighteen have professed conversion, and twenty-five are inquirers. The work is extending in power and influence. He is preaching for the pastor, Rev. J. T. McLaughlin.

Did he Commit Suicide?—The latest sensational item in Richmond is the alleged suicide of a man whose name is represented to be S. H. Burkholder. The case is rather a singular one, and the facts somewhat interesting.

Several days ago a stranger walked into the First Police Station-house and handed Captain Pleasant a letter, and asked him to read it. The man was well dressed, but appeared to be very nervous in his manner. The letter purported to be a confession, and was signed S. H. Burkholder. The writer stated in it that his mind had been impaired for several months, and that he had, during that period, endeavored to commit suicide in different ways.

He had taken laudanum, morphine, arsenic, chloroform, and tried to drown himself once in the Susquehanna river at Harrisburg, Pa., (where I presume his wife and two children are at present), but all to no purpose.

On the 7th instant I forged a check on my brother-in-law for $200, left Harrisburg for Washington, D. C., arrived at the latter place that same evening, and stopped over night. On Sunday morning I left on a steamboat, took the cars at Quantico, and arrived at Richmond at 1:30 the same day; got a ticket to Wilmington, N. C., arrived there on the following morning; stopped at the Marine Hotel, and went to bed. In the morning I was awakened by a knock, and a man came in and told me that my wife and two children were at the station-house, and that they were waiting for me.

"I now give myself in your hands, and whatever will be the consequence I must and am willing to abide by."

The officers at the station took him in charge and a telegram was sent to the authorities at Harrisburg announcing that he was in custody. The next morning a reply was received which read as follows: "We don't want him." This news Burkholder didn't seem to relish much, and he left the station-house. Later during the day he was seen near Rocketts, and a short time afterwards a boatman informed Policeman Jeter that in coming up the river he had noticed a pile of clothing on a rock. When he looked at it, he found it was the clothing of the man who had been taken to the station-house. In the pockets were found a number of articles and a vial labeled "chloroform," and a letter was found in one of the pockets which read as follows:

"August 28, 1874.
"Dear Wife and Children,—This is my last letter to you or anybody else. I am so sweet to write to you, but I am so bitter. I love you all, and left you with coolness, never to return.
"I did leave you in that way so my feelings would not betray me. God bless you, Katie and Harry; yes, everybody. I have no ill feelings toward any one. I have no love to die.
"Your affectionate and departed husband and father, S. H. BURKHOLDER."
Search was made for the body, but up to last accounts it had not been recovered.

The cold water and uninviting appearance of James river would lead one to suppose that the present season is not very favorable for building. If it is, however, Coroner Taylor will hold an inquest over it.

DROWNED.—The body of Charles Penny, a youth, aged ten years, was fished out of the dock near the corner of Fourteenth and Dock streets, during the morning, and was found to be the same. It was found at about 10 o'clock when it was discovered in the water, and Mr. F. J. Robinson, of Manchester, jumped into the dock, and endeavored to save him. He made several efforts to do so, and at one time succeeded in raising his head above water, but becoming exhausted he was compelled to relax his hold in order to save his own life. The boy was nearly dressed and wore a straw hat. Late in the afternoon Coroner Taylor viewed the body, but deemed an inquest unnecessary. The Doctor carried his remains to his mother's residence, No. 3217 Marshall street.

ACCIDENT IN THE BRIDGE HOV PRS.—Thursday morning, while Mr. George Garber, an experienced miner, was aiming to cut his "back" of coal, he had the misfortune to get badly cut by the pick which he was using at the time. A piece of coal fell down and struck the hand of the pick, causing him to get very badly wounded in the back. Mr. Garber is suffering very much, but hopes to be out in a few weeks.

DEDICATION.—Beech church will be dedicated to the worship of God at 11 A. M. to-morrow by Rev. George C. Vandervelde. This church is about eight miles from the city, on the Charles City road.

UNRECORDED LETTERS REMAINING IN THE RICHMOND POST-OFFICE, AUGUST 28, 1874.—George W. Hart, National Cemetery, Richmond, Va.; J. P. Nunn, Richmond, Va.; Joseph M. Wyatt, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Richmond, Va.

EXCURSIONS AND PIC-NICS.—Now that we are having such cool and beautiful weather an excursion to the mountains or anywhere in the country will be most enjoyable. We continue our notices of the remaining excursions for the season.

First in order is the "G. W." train on the Chesapeake and Ohio road, which leaves here at 4:45 P. M. to-morrow, reaching Staunton at 10:45, and returning, arrives in Richmond at 9:30 on Monday morning in ample time for business. There are many pleasant places on the line of the road between Richmond and Staunton where a pleasure seeker can enjoy the country air for twenty-four hours without losing any time from business. This mode of reaching the mountains has been very popular for a long time, and will doubtless continue so to be.

On Monday the anniversary picnic of Scholastic Lodge, No. 139, I. O. O. F., takes place at Scholastic Park. This park is very prettily situated on James river, just below Rocketts, and is easily reached. Conveyances for the accommodation of those who desire to attend the picnic will leave the terminus of the street railway, at Rocketts, every half hour, and will arrive at the picnic grounds at a good deal during this summer, and will doubtless continue to be a favorite place for recreation as long as good order is preserved and the park kept in proper trim.

Messrs. Mortimer Martin, M. C. Crowder, and S. R. Childers, managers, and Messrs. B. C. L. Ligon, W. N. Nunnally, James H. Butler, and John Murphy, committee of arrangements, propose to have "the excursion of the season" to West Point on Tuesday. They feel certain from the completeness of their arrangements that they are justified in promising that this excursion will compare favorably with any of the season. They will not allow any liquor or disreputable persons on the train, and children and ladies will be specially cared for by a select committee. A band of music has been engaged, and the usual sports may be expected at the Point. The train will leave the City River depot at 7:30 A. M., and return at 8 P. M.

"Look Out for the Locomotive" is the heading of an announcement of an excursion to the West Point on Monday. Messrs. S. R. Childers, George E. Ruffin, W. J. Davis, W. A. Lankin, and R. T. Jones are the committee of arrangements, and they promise that "we could do no business on that line." The facts of this case are briefly stated as follows: Accompanying this package was a bill for collection on delivery, or as we term it, C. O. D.; and as it is the rule of this company not to receive that class of freight, the package was refused by the company, and the bill was not paid. D.; and as it is the rule of this company not to receive that class of freight, the package was refused by the company, and the bill was not paid.

Riverside Park is still open as a resort, and during the warm weather is well patronized. The Richmond Caledonian Club will celebrate their second annual gathering at the State Fair-Grounds on Wednesday the 2d proximo, at which time complete success may be expected in the ancient games of Scotland.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO MR. ABRAHAM WARWICK'S MEMORY.—At 10 o'clock yesterday a meeting of the members of the Corn and Flour Exchange was held for the purpose of taking suitable action expressive of the regret entertained by the Exchange for the death of Mr. Abraham Warwick, a member of the Association.

The body was called to order by Mr. Lewis D. Crenshaw, president, who announced the object of the meeting, and passed a very neat and appropriate eulogy upon Mr. Warwick.

Mr. Edwin Wortham followed Mr. Crenshaw, and gave a very neat and appropriate eulogy upon Mr. Warwick's fine character and the intimate terms of business and friendly relations which had existed between them.

Mr. George S. Palmer moved that a committee of seven be appointed to draft appropriate resolutions. Agreed to. The committee consisted of Messrs. George S. Palmer, Thomas Potts, James H. Blair, Philip Haxall, W. B. Stannard, Charles T. Wortham, and Edwin Wortham.

The committee retired, and after a brief absence presented a series of resolutions, which were unanimously agreed to.

Good Music AHEAD FOR THE STAY-AT-HOMES.—The choir of the Second Baptist Church of this city, assisted by Mrs. James E. Tyler, Mrs. Ann Barton (an excellent and highly talented singer from Knoxville, Tenn.), and many other friends, gave a concert in the church about the 8th proximo. The classic excellence to which this choir and assistants has attained is the best guarantee that the concert will be in every way a rich and profitable affair.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—On Thursday night Mr. John T. Howell, who lives a short distance from the city, upon returning to his residence after a short absence, found that his family had all been frightened from their residence by thieves, who were endeavoring to gain admission to the house for the purpose of robbing it. The thieves were seen by Mr. Howell, and he gave the alarm, and the thieves made a hasty retreat. Mr. Howell resides on the Westham road.

GUilty OF AN ASSAULT.—Nancy Clarke appeared before the Police Justice yesterday upon a warrant made out by Besley Jeter, charging that Nancy Clarke had beaten and abused her husband, and had committed an assault on the Commonwealth. The Justice heard the case, concluded that Nancy was guilty, and sentenced her to thirty days' imprisonment in the city jail.

POLICE COURT, FRIDAY.—Police Justice Joseph J. White presiding.—The following cases were disposed of:

Edward W. Seymour, charged with being a vagrant and wandering about the street, was committed to jail for five days in default of surety in the sum of $50.

John Quarles, charged with unlawfully threatening to kill and kill William M. Jackson, was fined $5.

There were several other persons before the Justice for various offences, but they were discharged.

THE SCOTIA.—From our marine intelligence it will be seen by a New York telegram of yesterday that the steamship Scotia, which left New York on the 19th, had "arrived out." Among the passengers on the Scotia was Mr. H. D. Whitcomb, of this city, who went to Europe with the commission appointed to examine the mouth of the Mississippi river.

PERSONAL.—Captain H. C. Parsons, resident director of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad at Huntington, W. Va., was in the city last evening.

Superintendent James H. Binford, of the Richmond city public schools, returned to the city yesterday morning.

Bishop Gibbons returned to the city yesterday after a brief visit to North Carolina on church matters.

R. F. Hatzog, Esq., long the efficient telegraph operator of the Richmond and Danville railroad, has been made train dispatcher, &c.

A DRY-LAND FISH.—While the workmen of Mr. B. F. Redford, the contractor, were excavating for a culvert yesterday on the corner of Nineteenth and Main streets, they were not a little surprised to find a live fish were not a little surprised to find a live fish were not a little surprised to find a live fish.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY, VICE-PRESIDENT'S OFFICE, RICHMOND, VA., AUGUST 28, 1874.

Editors of the Dispatch: Gentlemen,—Please give place in your issue of to-morrow to the enclosed letter, the original of which I have sent to the editors of the Enquirer.

Yours truly, W. C. WICKHAM, Vice-President.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY, VICE-PRESIDENT'S OFFICE, RICHMOND, VA., AUGUST 28, 1874.

Editors of the Enquirer: Gentlemen,—Your paper of to-day contains an article headed "The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Defalcation," in which is given the sayings of the Richmond correspondent of the Chicago Times. There is not the very slightest ground for any of its statements.

It is utterly untrue that there has been any delinquency on the part of any officer or employee of this company.

It is utterly untrue that I have had any angry words or quarrels with any employee of this company, and it is utterly untrue that we have been any agreement between any official of this company and any stamers, in which said official was to receive pecuniary benefit from the contract.

Permit me to say, gentlemen, that in my opinion, such publications as the one referred to are in great abuse of the "liberty of the press," and to express surprise that a journal of such high standing as yours should permit them to find place in its columns without first inquiring into the truth thereof.

Your obedient servant, W. C. WICKHAM, Vice-President.

RICHMOND, VA., AUGUST 28.

To the Editors of the Evening Journal: Gentlemen,—In your issue of the 20th instant there appears a communication signed "C. H. B." in which it is set forth that a package consigned to a party on the Virginia and Tennessee Division of the Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio railroad had been delivered at the Richmond depot, and that the package was found to contain a large quantity of opium.

The facts of this case are briefly stated as follows: Accompanying this package was a bill for collection on delivery, or as we term it, C. O. D.; and as it is the rule of this company not to receive that class of freight, the package was refused by the company, and the bill was not paid.
